2020 ROSE COLLECTION

Welcome to the 2020 Digital Edition of the Grandiflora Rose Collection Guide.

The perfect roses for any event—

A wedding or any special event requires much planning and in doing so deciding on the right choice in every detail to perfection takes time. When it comes to wedding flowers, today's brides want beauty, elegance and flair. Grandiflora's vast rose collection represents the pinnacle of wedding and event flowers.

Grandiflora roses have been created specifically with brides and events in mind; Grandiflora's roses are beautifully shaped blooms that are available in over 100 varieties and colours that blend superbly with one another, many with a complimenting fragrance. Our roses are perfect for bridal bouquets and any church and reception decorations and much more. From natural to traditional elegant, bohemian chic to sophisticated design—Grandiflora roses in the hands of a professional florist will be perfect for any wedding or event.

From those who know roses best—

Grandiflora is a third generation family owned business with a long-standing reputation as a leading grower in floriculture since 1954. Grandiflora is Australia's largest cut rose grower, known for its professional rose breeding, growing and supplying 'Australia's finest roses'. In choosing Grandiflora roses, you can be assured you are getting the most beautiful roses.

To purchase Grandiflora roses—

Please contact your florist wholesaler who can assist you with all your Grandiflora every day and event roses. Please click here to view our Wholesale Florist & Distributor List.

Trade Only—

Grandiflora does not sell direct to the public, we supply trade only; our expertise is in the creating and growing of roses. We recommend that you contact a Florist as they are the professionals in assisting, advising in designing and making your dream floral arrangements.

Further updates for new rose varieties and other information throughout the year can be found on our website visit: grandiflora.com.au
